NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

You are advised that according to the law, the court may at any time revoke your probation for cause or modify the terms or conditions of your probation. You are subject to arrest by a probation officer with or without a warrant if the officer has cause to believe that you have violated a condition of your probation. You are further advised that it is your responsibility to make your probation officer aware of your adherence to all conditions of probation set forth above.

Sentence Appeal. If you are ordered to serve more than two years in jail, you may appeal the sentence to the court of appeals on the ground that it is excessive. Your appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of distribution stated below. If you are sentenced to serve two years or less in jail, you may seek review of your sentence by filing a petition for review in the supreme court. To do this, you must file a notice of intent to file a petition for sentence review within 10 days of the date of distribution stated below. See Appellate Rules 215 and 403(h) for more information on time limits, procedures and possible consequences of seeking review of your sentence.

☐ REGISTRATION REQUIREMENT. Because you have been convicted of one of the offenses listed in AS 12.63.100, you must register as described in the attached form (CR-471, Sex Offender and Child Kidnapper Registration Requirements).
